

Higher Education: a national asset in a global world

Deborah Roseveare
Head of Skills Beyond School Division
Directorate for Education and Skills
OECD

27 February 2013

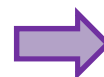

1. A global world
2. Higher education in a global world as a national asset for the UK
3. Higher education as a national asset for UK prosperity in a global world

1. A global world
2. Higher education in a global world as a national asset for the UK
3. Higher education as a national asset for UK prosperity in a global world

Economic backdrop in a global world: current challenges

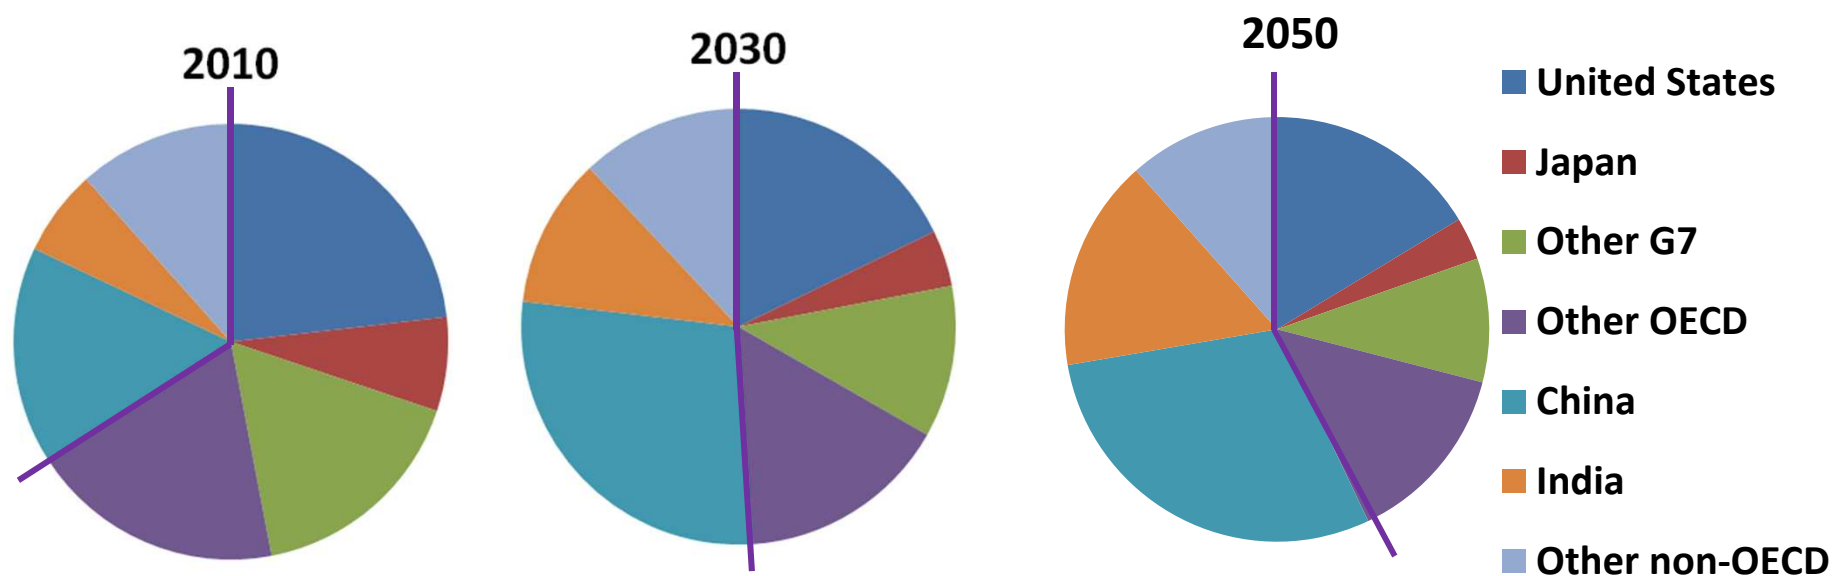

“Recovering from the recession, improving longer-term growth potential and reducing inequality are key challenges for the UK economy. “

OECD Economic Surveys, United Kingdom, 2013

Economic backdrop in a global world: long-term prospects

OECD demographic projections

2000 1 130 million

2050 1 334 million

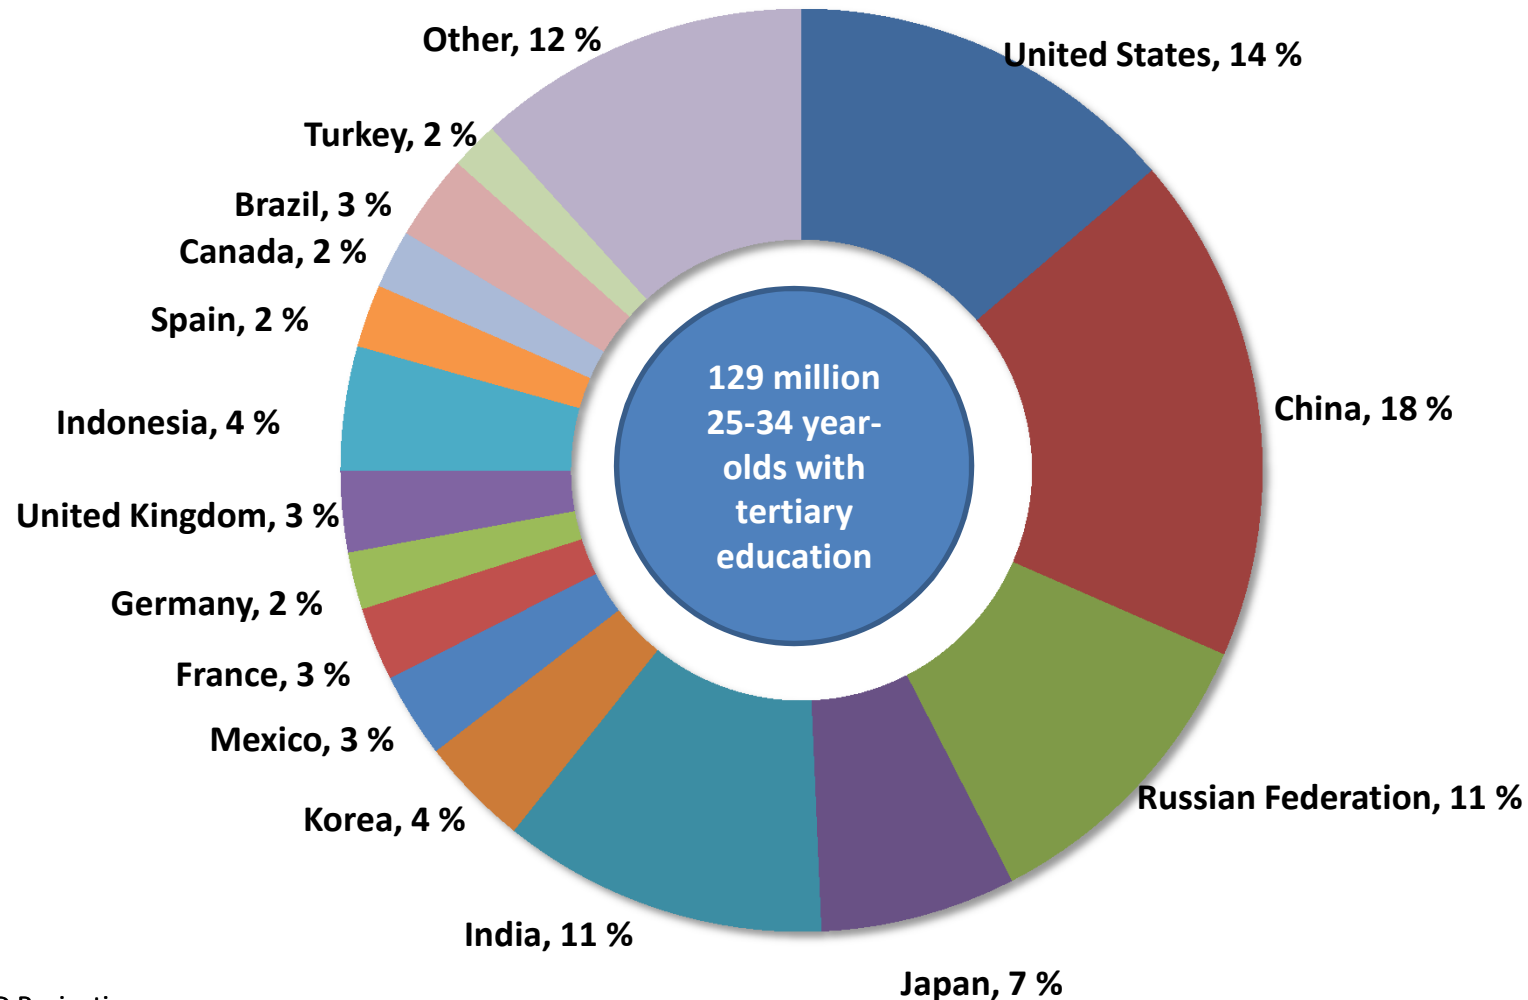

1. A global world
2. Higher education in a global world as a national asset for the UK
3. Higher education as a national asset for UK prosperity in a global world

Share of 25-34 year-olds with a tertiary degree OECD and G20 countries, 2010

Share of 25-34 year-olds with a tertiary degree OECD and G20 countries, 2020

25-34 year olds with tertiary education in 2020

Source: OECD projections

International students by destination

Origin of international students

United Kingdom destination

All destinations

International students as a share of all students in country<sup>a</sup>

Tertiary-type A programmes

Advanced research programmes

a. Foreign students for France

Source: OECD Education at a Glance

1. A global world
2. Higher education in a global world as a national asset for the UK
3. Higher education as a national asset for UK prosperity in a global world

Net private and public benefits to higher education, 2008

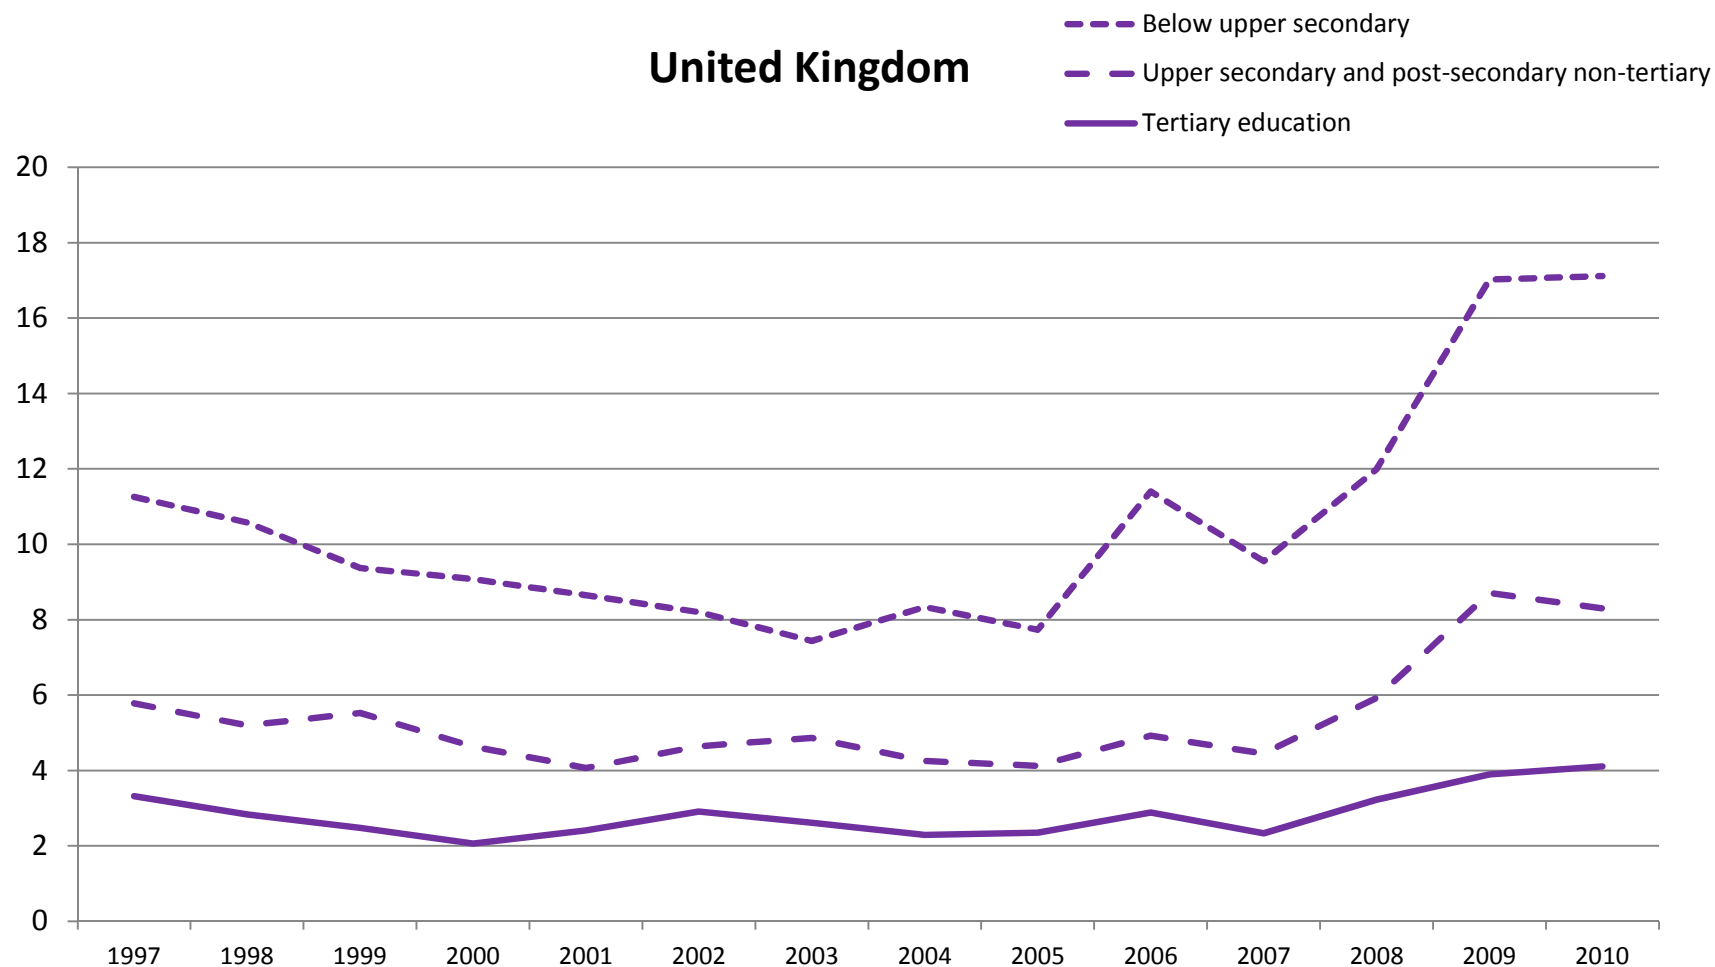

converted using PPPs for GDP
Source: OECD Education at a Glance

Unemployment rates, 25-34 year olds

United Kingdom

Source: OECD Education at a Glance

Unemployment rates, 25-34 year olds

Source: OECD Education at a Glance

Share of 25-34 years with tertiary education

Educational attainment of 25-34 year-old non-student population (2009)

United Kingdom

OECD

Educational mobility of 25-34 year-old non-students (2009)

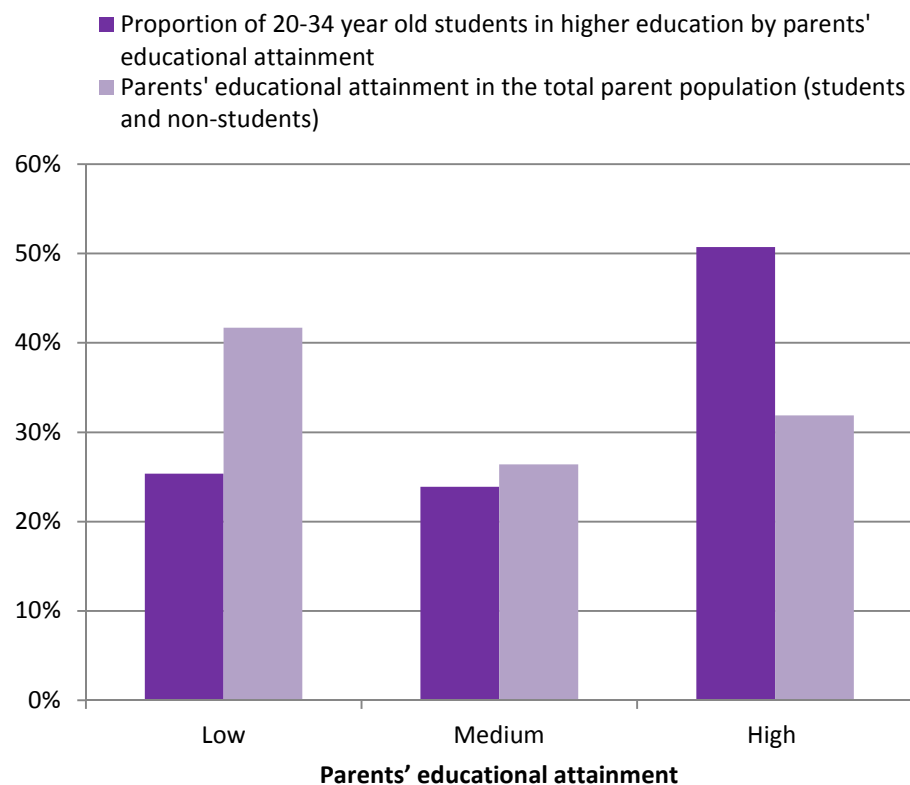

Upward/downward mobility means attaining an education level higher/lower than parents

Source: OECD Education at a Glance

Educational background of tertiary students (2009)

United Kingdom

OECD

OECD Higher Education Programme
IMHE

Thank you!

To learn more about the OECD Higher Education Programme

please visit our website: www.oecd.org/edu/imhe

If you would like to join the OECD Higher Education Programme<sup>1</sup>

please contact us at imhe@oecd.org

1. Membership of the programme is open to higher education institutions, government departments, agencies and certain non-profit organisations